TRAILERED ON BLOOD RANCH

Ambitious young go-getter Ben Caruso signs on with sexy corporate headhunter Sarah Tierne, who finds him a new job with great pay and only one drawback: It's the graveyard shift. Not a problem. Ben accepts the job—as well as Sarah's sexual advances! Professional reasons aside, this is one line Ben should never have crossed...

He quickly learns that his coworkers are actually the tormented souls of Sarah's previous conquests, and that his real job is to find a missing head—or lose his! With each tick of the clock, Ben comes ever-closer to either locating the head or ending up on the chopping block himself. Looks like the best way to get ahead in business is to keep your own!
